United States Magistrate Judge
United States District Court
King Courthouse Building
Newark, New Jersey 07101

RE: Kim v. Keisler et ano.
NO. CV 08-1993

Dear Judge Sheridan:

Plaintiff respectfully write to request that this case be reopened.

In this action, Plaintiff seeks an order directing United States Citizenship and Immigration Services to grant and issue him a permanent resident card as proof of his lawful permanent residence. On June 25, 2008, USCIS approved this case. Defendants requested that this case be dismissed for the USCIS expects that the Plaintiff will receive the aforementioned card within the next three weeks. After that, Plaintiff consistently made numerous inquiries concerning the status of his Permanent Resident Card to the USCIS. However, no further action has been taken and the Plaintiff still has not obtained his permanent resident card. It is nearing one months since the delivery of defendant's request to dismiss this action. In this action, the Plaintiff seeks an order directing the USCIS to issue him a permanent resident card. Thus, this action is no longer moot and Plaintiff request that it should be reopened.

I look forward to receiving your reply at your earliest possible convenience.

Yours very truly,

Gi Ho Kim
